Preparation is fundamental to flawless service. The concept of mise en place, borrowed from French culinary traditions, emphasizes organizing all necessary equipment, utensils, and ingredients before service begins. This includes:

- Setting tables properly with appropriate cutlery, glassware, and linen.
- Ensuring all service equipment, such as trays, trolleys, and chafing dishes, are clean and ready.

- Menu Knowledge and Upselling

Staff must possess in-depth knowledge of the menu, including ingredients, preparation methods, and wine pairings. This enables them to:

- Answer guest questions confidently.
- Make personalized recommendations.

Upselling, when done tactfully, benefits both the guest and the establishment by enriching the dining experience.
