Understanding this division requires delving into its origins, structure, operational history, and the broader implications of its existence within the Waffen SS framework.

Origins and Formation of the 27th Waffen SS Division

Historical Context of Formation

During World War II, the Waffen SS, the armed wing of the Nazi Party's Schutzstaffel (Protection Squadron), expanded rapidly to include numerous divisions composed of volunteers and conscripts from various countries. The 27th Waffen SS Division, also known by its operational name "Lettsche" (Latvian), was established primarily to utilize the manpower and military potential of Latvian volunteers.

This division was formed in 1943 amidst the German efforts to bolster their forces on the Eastern Front against the advancing Soviet Red Army.
