- First Conditional: real future possibilities (If it rains, I will stay home.)
- Second Conditional: hypothetical present or future (If I were rich, I would travel the world.)
- Third Conditional: hypothetical past (If I had studied, I would have passed.)

Mixed conditionals combine different types to express complex ideas, such as past conditions with present results.

Passive Voice

Passive constructions are used when the focus is on the action or the recipient rather than the doer.

Forming passive:

- Present Simple: The book is read by many students.
- Past Simple: The cake was baked yesterday.

When to use:

- When the doer is unknown or unimportant
- To emphasize the action or object

Understanding when and how to switch between active and passive voice enhances clarity and style.

Reported Speech

Converting direct speech into reported speech involves changes in tense, pronouns, and expressions of time.

Example:

- Direct: She said, "I am tired."
- Reported: She said she was tired.

Time expressions also shift: today becomes that day, tomorrow becomes the next day. Recognizing these changes is essential for accurate reporting.
