Recommendation letters are typically written by teachers, counselors, coaches, or community leaders. However, when a close friend writes one, it introduces a different dynamic—more personal, candid, and emotionally resonant.

- Depth: A close friend can provide detailed insights into the applicant's life, struggles, and achievements.
- Unique Perspectives: Friends might observe qualities like resilience, leadership in informal settings, or community involvement that others overlook.

Tailor your letter to match the context. For a legal matter, focus on honesty and respectfulness; for a job, highlight responsibility and work ethic; for housing, underscore reliability and neighborliness.

Step 5: Conclude with a Strong Endorsement

Summarize your confidence in your friend's character and your willingness to vouch for them:

"In my opinion, John is one of the most trustworthy and responsible individuals I know. I am confident he would be an asset to your organization."

Step 6: Offer Additional Support

Close by offering to provide further information if needed:

"Please feel free to contact me at the information provided above if you require any additional insights."
